

NEC is giving away FREE large-screen speakers!

Effective September 1, 2008, NEC will be shipping FREE SP32 speakers ($379.99 ESP) on all orders of the NEC MultiSync LCD3210-BK. In addition, NEC will be shipping FREE SP32 speakers for your existing inventory of LCD3210-BK displays.

Process to receive free SP32:

- Place an order for LCD3210-BK large-screen display and list the SP32 at no charge. NEC will then ship free speakers, 1:1 to the number of LCD3210-BK displays ordered.
- Existing inventory orders will be shipped based on the reported inventory to NEC on 9/1/08. If you are not submitting inventory on a weekly basis to NEC, you will need to contact your NEC Account Manager to verify inventory and receive the free SP32.

Offer valid while supplies last.
